REX FLINTKOTE ROOFING

It is made on honor and backed by a firm with a business reputation covering the past 70 years.

What Should a Good Roof Do?

Protect from water, cold, heat, sparks and fumes—be laid with economy, and wear without expensive repair.

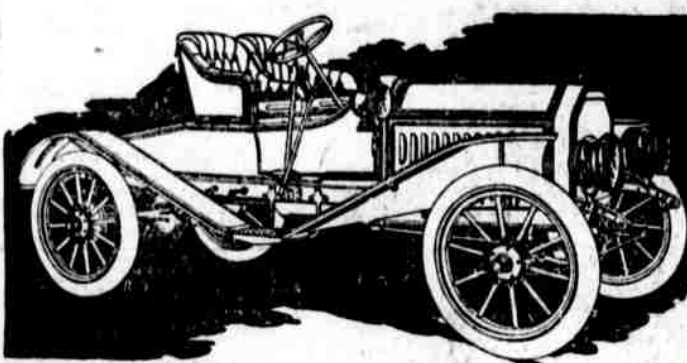

Unlike shingles, REX Flintkote ROOFING will not blaze up at the first spark—unlike slate, it will not yield to the gale of wind—unlike tar, it will not melt and run—unlike tin, it will not rust nor leak at the first chance.

Unlike them all—it may be laid by any ordinary workman—with a hammer—everything else needed is in the roll.

Unlike them all it is suitable for every kind of farm building.

We have it in stock, and heartily recommend this roofing to all who believe it is economy to pay a fair price for a superior article.

UNUSUAL INTEREST IN NEXT GAMES

Who Will Lead For The Pennant? Puns Are 10-7 Favorites

Winners play winners and losers play losers at Baseball park tomorrow, when the Kams and the Saints cross sticks and the Puns and Jewels furnish the second game for the crowd. The former teams now have averages of .000, and the latter have perfect averages. This will be the first time that the apparently weak teams have met and the seemingly strong aggregations have been together. Additional interest attaches on account of the fact that after the games tomorrow each of the teams will have played against each of the others.

Naturally, fans are worked up over the result, especially of the second game, Puns vs. Diamond Head A. C. There is some money going around to say that each will take the lead in the pennant race, but most of the money talks for the Puns, they being 10-7 favorites in betting done yesterday.

BERETANIA TENNIS RESULTS

Matches played yesterday afternoon in the Beretania Tennis Club Invitation Tournament resulted as follows: A. R. Cunha defeated F. E. Steere 6-4, 6-2; A. J. Lowrey beat J. Waterhouse 6-1, 6-1; H. S. Grey beat H. G. Dillingham 9-7, 6-3. The only match to be played this afternoon will be at 5 o'clock between Stanley Kennedy and H. S. Grey, the winner of this match will fill out the semi-final list. Tomorrow afternoon A. J. Lowrey will play A. R. Cunha and the winner of today's Kennedy-Grey match will play W. L. Warren.

The pictures shown at the Opera House last night kept the audience in an uproar from beginning to end. Some of them mystified them and kept them wondering how the thing was done. The comic pictures were as good as any shown anywhere.

There was a tremendous improvement in Miss Clifton's singing last night and she was well received. So well did she sing that the audience could not believe that she was feeling her best on her first appearance. The gallery gods were particularly enthusiastic. Saturday night will be the last. The seats are to be had at Wall Nichols Co. at 15 cents for the gallery, 25 cents for the balcony, and 50 cents for downstairs.

JAPANESE LOSE PROTEST

The Japanese A. C. lost the protest which it made over Umpire Barney Joy's decisions at Aala Park, last night at a meeting of the Riverside League. The referee board could not see that the points of the Japanese were well taken.

In case nothing more is heard of the Trans-Pacific race before Saturday, the Hawaii and other local yachts will go on a week-end cruise.

Lopez Talks

While various posers of police have been hunting for Lopez over almost the entire kona side of Oahu, that gentleman was all the time, with the exception of the last few days, hidden in the mountains mauka of Kaula in Waialua district.

This is the story of the desperado who was brought to town from Alea by Deputy Sheriff Fernandez this afternoon. Lopez was taken directly to the police station, where he was closely questioned as to his doings while he was at large.

Lopez says that while he was in jail he got hold of a piece of iron which he washed into a saw, this piece of work taking him two days. He then proceeded to cut the bars, which occupied two nights. He and Rodriguez then tied a blanket to the bars and let themselves down by the ground by this means. They went first to Iwilei, and that same night they proceeded to Alea. Thence they went to Waipahu, up the Waipio gulch, through Wahiawa and Wai-lua and to the Kaula gulch, where they made a camp. Here the two outlaws stayed for a while, but finally they quarrelled, and Rodriguez struck out for himself, and was soon captured.

Lopez remained at Kaula. He often visited the Porto Rican plantation camps, the inmates of which kept him advised of the movements of the police. He made considerable money at gambling, with which he purchased a suit of clothes and other necessities. Most of his provisions he picked up in these camps.

Last Saturday he went to Alea, where he was captured.

TAKING BIG GUNS OUT OF HILONIAN TODAY

Shortly before noon today, the first of the five big guns for the fortifications at Diamond Head was taken out of the hold of the Hilonian, at the railroad wharf, and deposited onto a flat car, whence it was swung by a big crane onto the truck which took it out to the fortifications. The use of the county steam roller has been secured for the service. It will not require a great time to handle the gun or at least to get them off the wharf, as they will all be out of the hold, it is said, if all goes well, by the time this paper goes off the press.

Four hundred fifty-two thousand three hundred pounds of fittings were taken out to Diamond Head yesterday in the smaller pieces, and the like. Each of the five guns weighs about 14 tons, two top carriages which have to be handled weigh over 33,000 pounds each, and 3 base rings in the lot weigh 8 tons each.

The weight of the big pieces on the tackle caused the big steamer to careen. Quite a crowd collected to see the work.

The Kams and the Puns will cross bats today at Oahu College in a contest which may decide the interscholastic championship for the first series of the schedule. The Kams will be the champs in case they win out, as they have a higher average than any of the teams now, having lost not a single game.

Naturally, most of the men who have been following the sport in the schools will be out this afternoon, when the teams hook up.

TAX POURING IN

It was stated in the Tax Assessor's office this morning that there would be less pillage regarding delinquent taxes this year than there was last. About the usual number of people are behind time at the present writing, but it is the opinion of the officials in the tax office that things will shape themselves very well before night.

There has been a steady stream of people before the windows all the time today.

Danny Long, the Seal's manager, wants the size of first bag enlarged.

A few days' more racing are yet to come at Emeryville.

Referee Saved Unholtz

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 14.—Joe Gans won the bout with Unholtz in the eleventh round, when the referee stopped the fight, Unholtz being unable to continue. He was strong, but awkward, and could not land effectively. Unholtz was knocked down in the fourth round by an uppercut on the chin. The Boer, in further rounds, fought wildly, and was knocked down in the seventh with a swing of Gans' right to the chin. It became only a question of time when Unholtz would be sent to the floor. In the tenth he was dazed and clinched the round out. In the eleventh round, Gans stood aside and the Boer blindly struck the air. The referee then stopped the fight.

LOCAL JAPANESE ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

Much Speculation Over Certainty of Keio Team Coming

Though yesterday afternoon it seemed that the matter of bringing the teams from the Coast and Japan over here to play ball was all fixed up, and the public would know right away what was to be done, the official part of the thing is taking longer than expected, and while it is certain, practically speaking, that the teams will be brought, the project to be financed by the Trustees of the Honolulu Baseball League, to the extent of some thousands of dollars, it is not known just when the League will officially be notified of the determination of the trustees, nor is it known when the league officers will meet to act on the stipulations which the trustees make.

Now that the thing is on definitely there is a good deal of speculation as to what the result will be of having a three-cornered international ball contest here. The local Japanese are particularly enthusiastic over the prospect of the Keio University team being seen here, and the effort to get subscriptions is the most successful when they are called on. It is expected that they will lend the support of their presence in large numbers, also, when the team is actually here, and there is now talk among the League men of the necessity of enlarging the bleachers, as it is thought the present ones will not be big enough for the crowds which will be drawn.

In the meantime, the interest which the present games is exciting is coming up, in view of the big baseball matches which will be seen this summer and the crowds at the ball grounds are apt to be improving every Saturday now.

SPORTIVE SPLURGES

The Kennel Club men are having a hard time to get a meeting and had to postpone the one which was on for yesterday. They will try to meet today if possible.

The match race which was to have taken place between Sunrise and Shamrock on Saturday at Kapiolani Park has been postponed for a week. The Lahaina defeated the Illamas at Lahaina Saturday a week ago, in a game of baseball by a score of 6 to 5.

The Aala Athletic Club will give a concert and dance at K. of P. hall Saturday evening, May 16th.

Interest Here Over Gans-Unholtz Bout; McFarland In Mind

A good deal of interest was manifested here in the Gans-Unholtz fight held in San Francisco last night, which the negro fighter won by the knock-out route. Gans was the favorite here, as he was in the San Francisco betting circles. He had the Boer crazy after the first few rounds, and Unholtz proved, just as many fans expected, a strong but unscientific fighter.

Now, Paeky MacFarland is on tap. Paeky has been getting rid of a lot of large talk lately, and it is expected that he will have to show up well to make good on all he has said he could do. Gans may be twelve years older but he still can go some.

NO COLLUSION ALLOWED

A divorce granted under an agreement of the parties interested forming collusion, is not a legal divorce. This decision was made by the Supreme Court this morning in the case of Peleamoku (K) vs. Makanole, both of Kauai. The syllabus says: Divorce—collusion in prosecution of suit: A libel for divorce brought at the instigation and for the benefit of the defendant upon his agreement to pay the plaintiff money is properly dismissed on the ground of collusion.

HOLUALOA SCHOOL

PRINCIPAL REPORTS

Mrs. Nettie Scott Says That She Teaches Roman History and Biscuit-Making.

An interesting report has been sent to Superintendent of Public Instruction Babbitt from the principal of the Holualoa school, Mrs. Nettie Scott, in which she states that she "is at present teaching Roman history, partial payments, and biscuit-making." The report is really one concerning cooking and carpentering, as is stated in the opening sentence of the letter.

That good results are being obtained from the introduction of a practical curriculum is demonstrated in the report which Mrs. Scott makes. She goes into the detail of each day's work, what the boys do and what the girls work at, and it is indeed an interesting letter.

On account of the fact that no suitable cottage kitchen could be acquired, one of the school rooms was converted into a kitchen, and it is here that a great deal of the girls' work is being done. Considerable expense was incurred in fitting out the room, but as an illustration of the efficiency of the work carried on, Mrs. Scott states that it has nearly all been paid from the receipts from the sale of jelly made by the girls.

MAUI LIABILITY

GASE IS SENT HERE

Supreme Court Will Decide Whether County is Liable for Costs in Individual Suit.

"Is the County of Maui liable for any costs in a suit brought by an individual, said County ybeking the losing party, and, if so, to what costs?" The above is the question which has been reserved to the Supreme Court by the Judge of the Second Circuit in the matter of taxation of costs. The case in question is that of Frank Robello, plaintiff, against the County of Maui, in a suit for a bill of injunction.

On account of the fact that no satisfactory agreement can be reached in the lower court, the question has been reserved, as is the custom in such cases, to the Supreme Court. The attorneys for both sides agreed to have the matter decided here.

The reservation is dated May 4th, at Wailuku, Maui, and is signed by Judge A. N. Kopekai.
